

Johann Dietrich Hartig,

born in Lüneburg in 1996. After graduating from high school and completing an agricultural apprenticeship, he studied agricultural sciences at the Georg August University in Göttingen from 2017 to 2020. In 2020, he worked for several months in the field of agricultural business management in North-East Romania. Since 2021, he has been working as a crop protection and cultivation advisor at the Lower Saxony Chamber of Agriculture and supports farmers in optimising their cultivation methods and protecting their plants from diseases and pests. In 2022, he took over his parents' farm in the Lüneburg Heath. He learnt about the FriedensBrot e.V. association through training at the Andreas Hermes Academy.