

Markus Stauder,

grew up on a crop farm in Mainz, Rhineland-Palatinate. After graduating from high school and completing an agricultural apprenticeship, he studied agricultural sciences at the University of Hohenheim from 2017 to 2023. During his studies, he completed several internships in agribusiness and practical agriculture, including in Lithuania and Canada. After graduation, he worked for two years as a sales promoter at a German agricultural machinery manufacturer. In the winter of 2026, he completed a continuing education program at the Andreas Hermes Academy, where he became acquainted with the FriedensBrot e.V. association.